SUMMARY

Full Stack Web Developer adapting my relevant skills of HVAC and trades to the ever growing world of tech. 14 years of experience working in teams, adapting and organizing in various work settings and now the goal is to take that solid work ethic and passion for tech into the world of Web development. A detail oriented, analytical approach, coupled with a leader's mentality, the goal is to improve and build a better environment in the workplace and affect the overall outcome of the customer/user experience. The Full Stack Web Developer bootcamp at the University of Penn is a rigorous 6-month program that has sharpened my skills in Javascript, JQuery, Express.js, MongoDB, REACT, Node.js, GraphQL, git, HTML, CSS, bootstrap, Heroku, MERN, JSON, and many other technologies. Successfully navigating the waters of this demanding fast-paced bootcamp to build a portfolio of skills that will translate into immediate success in the workplace.
